

ROGER LYNE HAMILTON SC

SPECIALISATION

Roger specialises in Commonwealth and State revenue law, with particular interests in international tax law, and the taxation of trusts and business income.

PROFESSIONAL QUALIFICATIONS

Senior Counsel (SC)	Appointed 2006
Barrister	Ground Floor Wentworth Chambers (since 1993)
Partner	Minter Ellison, Sydney
Director	Morgan Grenfell, Hong Kong
Partner	Freehills, Sydney
Lecturer	Australian National University, Canberra
Principal Legal Officer	Attorney-General's Department, Canberra

EDUCATION

BA; LLB (Hons)	Australian National University
LLM	Osgoode Hall Law School, Canada
M Tax	Sydney University

PUBLICATIONS

- "Understanding Australian International Taxation" (CCH Australia)
- "Guidebook to Australian International Taxation" (Lexis Nexis) (joint author)
- "Lawyers Tax Companion" (CCH Australia) (joint author)
- "Foreign Investment Regulation in Australia" (Butterworths) (consulting editor)

TEACHING

In addition to teaching in the Law and Economics Faculties at ANU, Roger has taught a number of subjects in the Masters Program at Sydney Law School. He currently teaches the subject "Tax Litigation".

CASES

Roger was junior counsel in some leading international tax cases including Lamesa, Unisys, and McDermott. He has also appeared in a variety of other revenue and equity/commercial cases at all levels in the judicial hierarchy.