

BRADLEY L JONES

Professional Qualifications

2000 Admitted to the Roll of Solicitors in the Supreme Court of New South Wales.

2005 Admitted to the New South Wales Bar.

Education

1994 Bachelor of Commerce, University of Western Sydney

1999 Bachelor of Laws (First Class Honours), University of Technology, Sydney

2005 Master of Laws, Sydney University (Winner Bill Wallace Memorial Prize)

Brief Professional Experience (i.e. employment history)

1989 -1999 Australian Taxation Office (Last position: Large Business & International)

2000 Australian Government Solicitor

2000-2002 Senior Associate, PricewaterhouseCoopers Legal

2002-2005 Senior Associate, Mallesons Stephen Jaques

2005 to date Barrister

Professional Associations

Member NSW Bar Association

Fellow, Taxation Institute of Australia

Fellow, Society of Trust & Estate Practitioners

Additional Professional Activities

Lieutenant, Royal Australian Navy Reserve

Publications

“Section 39B, Section 177 and the Hickman Principle”, (2000) 29 Australian Tax Review 231;

“The Use of The Commissioner’s Formal Powers and Requests for the Exchange of Information under Double Tax Agreements”, (2001) 30 Australian Tax Review 39;

“Transfer Pricing: The Process and Validity of Assessments” (2002) Vol 5 The Tax Specialist 186;

“Can confidential information be a CGT asset?” Vol 42/6 Taxation In Australia 349;

“Sham and Alter Ego Trusts – A Recent Perspective” Vol 15/6 Trusts & Trustees 498;

“The Burden of Proof in Tax Appeals” Vol 43/10 Taxation In Australia 651;

Co-author Evans’ Equity & Trusts (2003) LexisNexis Butterworths.;

Butterworths Encyclopaedia of Forms and Precedents (2005) - Gifts and Trusts titles.